In order to complete verification of your FAFSA information, an IRS Verification of Non-filing Letter dated on or after October 1, 2020 must be submitted for every tax non-filer whose 2019 income information was required to be reported on your FAFSA.

You have been given this form because one or both of your parents, or your spouse [if you are married], do not have a Social Security Number, an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, or an Employer Identification Number and cannot obtain the required documentation of non-filing status from the IRS.

A separate statement should be submitted for each individual who will not be able to provide an IRS Verification of Non-filing Letter for the reason that they do not have any of the identifiers listed above.

If the student/parent/spouse's gross income earned in the United States exceeds the IRS tax filing requirements found in the 2019 IRS publication 17 then this form cannot be used and that individual must apply for a Social Security Number, Individual Taxpayer Identification Number or Employer Identification Number and file a tax return and obtain a 2019 IRS tax return transcript to complete FAFSA verification.
